

Inheritance

You got a mail saying that a rich person in Dubai died and you and your brother is getting all his money. At first you thought this is a spam, but it is not true. You really got the money ! But you and your brother both want the money badly. The following products are left by the rich person:

- Picture : Rs. 250000
- Socks : Rs. 50000
- Vase : Rs. 200000
- Ferrari : Rs. 400000
- 3 GoldRings : Rs. 120000 each
- DiamondRing : Rs. 30000
- 2 PlatinumRings : Rs. 100000 each
- Yatch : Rs. 150000
- HayaBusa : Rs. 100000
- Furniture : Rs. 130000

All the products are indivisible and will only go to you or your brother. You want to distribute products such that the difference in value of products you get and products your brother get is as minimum as possible.
