

Q6. Given sum of every row, sum of every column, sum of the two diagonals and some element in each row of an square matrix with non-zero positive numbers as entries, write a OPL model find the whole matrix.

Use Q6.dat for input.

(Your model should print each row in a line.)

(Choose your variables wisely.)