Q4. Given 25 coins, arrange them in five rows of five coins each. Remove 10 coins in such a way that each row and each column has 3 coins in total.

(Your model should print the coins arrangement, one row per line.)
(Choose your variables wisely.)